

INDRA ALI
FACILITATOR

Indra became part of the Nu Quest team in Feb 2004 after a fulfilling 23 years of service in the Singapore Armed Forces. His last appointment in the SAF was that of a National Service (NS) Brigade Operations Officer, a stint that he will not forget in the 23 years must be the appointment as the Aide-de-Camp to the President of Singapore between 1992 to 1994.

He is currently at the tail-end of his MBA course. He has armed himself with certification in Extended DISC also Human Performance Improvement from the American Society of Training and Development.

Indra has a keen insight into the value of human capital development and adult education. He helps create effective learning environment to transfer skills and foster meaningful experiences that enhances a paradigm shift for positive outcomes.

Get in touch with indra.a@nuquest.biz